(x.) To acquire, own, lease, and operate canneries, meat, fish, or vegetable preserving or curing establishments, and to carry on the business of canners, preservers of meat, fish, fruit, or vegetables:

(y.) To carry on business, both wholesale and retail, as meat-packers, butchers, purveyors of fish, meat, and provisions, and to operate and conduct a commission and general mercantile business:

(z.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in grain, flour, meals, linseed oil and cake, and the products and by-products of all and any of them:

(aa.) To acquire, erect, maintain, and operate elevators and warehouses, and to store and clean grain, merchandise, goods, and chattels of all kinds:

(bb.) To make advances on any grain, merchandise, goods, and chattels which may be stored with or be in the custody of or be in any railway or any elevator, mill, or warehouse:

(cc.) To carry on business as general merchants, importers and exporters, wholesale and retail, in all kinds of merchandise, goods, wares, and products:

(dd.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in, whether wholesale or retail, ploughs and all kinds of agricultural implements, tools and machinery:

(ee.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in, whether wholesale or retail, all fire-proofing materials and products for fire-proofing:

(ff.) To carry on the business of forwarding and importing of goods and passengers on roads, rivers, lakes, and waters, and also of warehousemen, wharfingers, and livery-keepers:

(gg.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter and exchange, let or hire, import, export, manipulate, prepare for market, and deal in all kinds of goods, chattels, wares, and merchandise which may be required for the purpose of any of the said businesses, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons in any of the said business, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(hh.) To act as representatives of other persons or companies for the execution, completion, and maintenance of works of all kinds and descriptions, and for such purposes to act as collection and credit agents, either on commission or salary, for the aforesaid persons or companies, and to acquire for its own benefit and in its own name the assets in whole or in part of said persons or companies:

(ii.) To transact and carry on a general agency and brokerage business, and to act as agents and brokers for the investing, loaning, transmitting, and collecting of money for the transferring and recording of bonds, debentures, shares, or other securities, and for the purpose of sale and improvement, development and management of any property, business, or undertaking, and the management, control, or working of syndicates, partnerships, associations, companies, or corporations:

(jj.) To manage land, buildings, and other property, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income:

(kk.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real or personal property or assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(ll.) To seek for and acquire openings for the employment of capital in any part of the world, and to apply for any Act of Parliament, concession, grant, decree, right, or privilege whatsoever, and to deal with, develop, and turn the same into account:

(mm.) To establish or promote any company or similar body and to form and manage syndicates:

(nn.) To institute, enter into, and carry on, finance, assist, or participate in trade, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, and other business, works, contracts, undertakings, and operations of all kinds:

(oo.) To generally carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, trade, or otherwise, which individual capitalists could lawfully undertake and carry out, except the business of insurance, the business of a loan company, or the business of a trust company:

(pp.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(qq.) To issue and allot fully paid-up shares of the Company in payment or part payment of any business, financial undertaking, property, right, power, privilege, lease, licence, or contract which the Company is authorized to acquire:

(rr.) To sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the property and undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may see fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, bonds, or securities of any other company:

(ss.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or about the promotion of this or any other company, and attaining the subscriptions of the share capital thereof or the quotations thereof upon any stock exchange:

(tt.) To distribute amongst the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(uu.) To enter into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any Government, municipal, or local authority, or with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about the carrying on or engaging in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to guarantee the contracts of, either with or without security, and to loan money to or otherwise assist any such persons or company or any person or company undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and generally to such persons or companies and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(vv.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(wv.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or persons, firm, or company as trustee or agent for the Company, and either alone or in conjunction with any person or persons, firm, company, Government, body, or authority:

(xx.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not and whether registered or domiciled in the Province of Alberta or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or the name of the Company:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Legislature of the Province of Alberta does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank-notes; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of the laws in force in Alberta and regulations made thereunder in respect to the matters therein referred to, and especially with reference to the construction and operation of railway, telegraph, and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special law and regulation may now or may hereafter be put in force. 6969-ja3

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

6382 se13 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive rights to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of this Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property or rights or information so acquired:

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, company, or corporations carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, or having power to carry on or engage in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and also to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, licences, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, licences, and concessions:

(q.) And for the purposes of the Company, to lend and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances upon stock, shares, debentures, and debenture stock and other securities, and upon properties of all kinds and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in kind among the members:

(t.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of lading, bills of exchange, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and also any other mercantile instruments, whether negotiable, transferable, or not:

(u.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms and upon such securities as the Company thinks fit, and in particular (and without limiting the generality of this object) by the issue of bonds, debentures, and debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled-for capital, and to purchase, redeem, or buy off any such securities:

(v.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(w.) To do such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(x.) To do all or any part of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. 6938-de27

(d.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and in consideration for the same to pay cash or issue shares, stock, or obligations of the Company:

(f.) To enter any partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any transaction or business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(i.) To lend money to such person or companies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person or company:

(j.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, and pay off such securities:

(k.) To draw, accept, make, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(l.) To dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, exchange, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with any part of or all the property and rights of the Company:

(n.) To enter into contracts for allotments of shares of the Company, credited as fully or partially paid up, as the whole or any part of the purchase price of any goods, property, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(o.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company or in or about the promotion of the Company and the conduct of its business:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie or otherwise:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any other country or place:

(r.) To do all things as are incidental to or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(d.) To carry on the business of wholesale, commission, and general merchants:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by building and constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, bungalows, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and to subdivide, sell, lease, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise charge or encumber the said lands or any interest therein:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(g.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire any timber lands and any timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and to work, develop, maintain, and turn the same to account, as the Company may see fit:

(h.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, repair, improve, alter, sell, exchange, let out to hire or charter, or otherwise deal with and dispose of steam and other ships or vessels or any shares or interest in the same, with all equipment and furniture, and to carry on all or any of the businesses of ship-owners, managers of shipping property, ship-brokers, shipping agents, freight contractors, carriers by land and water, factors, warehousemen, wharfingers, barge and scow owners, tug-owners, lightermen, towage contractors, and forwarding agents:

(i.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(j.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business, which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the formation or promotion of this Company and the conduct of its business:

(p.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise:

(q.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(r.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(t.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(9.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purpose of its business:

(10.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(11.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(12.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(13.) To acquire, hold, alienate, convey, mortgage, or hypothecate any real estate for its own use, accommodation, or by way of security or investment:

(14.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money in such manner and form as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off the same:

(15.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(16.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(17.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(18.) To procure the Company to be registered, established, or recognized in the Dominion of Canada or any of the Provinces thereof, or the United States of America and elsewhere abroad, and to carry on business thereunder:

(19.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect, with such (if any) modifications as may be agreed upon, whether before or after the execution thereof, an agreement in the terms of a draft agreement already prepared and initialled for identification by John Silas Wynn Pugh, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, and expressed to be made between Western Fuel Corporation of Canada, Limited, and George W. Bowen, the liquidator thereof, of the one part and this Company of the other part:

(b.) To buy, sell, and deal in real estate, mines, and minerals, and particularly lands containing veins or seams of coal in or under the said lands anywhere whatsoever in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to acquire such lands, mines, real estate, either by purchase, lease, or exchange, or in any way whatsoever as may seem advisable to the Company:

(c.) To carry on the business of miners of every description, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise mines and mining locations, ores, and minerals, and to explore, develop, work, and treat any such mines, mining locations, ores, and minerals, and to pay for all such mines, mining locations, ores, minerals, mining interests, and mining properties, either by cash or by allotments of shares of this Company:

(d.) To manufacture coke, tar, gas, and other by-products of coal, and to sell and dispose of the same:

(e.) To acquire and maintain the full right and power to make, secure, and use all pits, shafts, drifts, levels, drains, watercourses, and reservoirs, and to construct, erect, maintain, and use tram-roads and other roads, bridges, culverts, buildings, works, engines, machinery, coal-bunks, and all conveniences whatsoever as may be necessary or convenient for searching for, working, getting, preparing, carrying away, and disposing of the products of the said mines or seams of coal upon any lands whatsoever acquired by the Company:

(f.) To build, construct, erect, maintain, and alter and change any such houses, buildings, tram-roads and other roads, bridges, and works that may at any time be necessary for purposes of the Company:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, lease, or otherwise wharves and docks and lands for the same on the sea-coast, or on lakes, bays, rivers, or other waters, and rights-of-way thereto and therefrom, and to construct and maintain upon lands acquired by the Company such wharves, docks, and other buildings thereon and appertaining thereto as may be necessary for the more convenient carrying away of the products of the mines and mineral lands to be acquired by the Company:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise for the use of the Company, their agents, servants, or workmen, free and uninterrupted rights-of-way, ingress and egress for persons, animals, and vehicles through, along, or over any piece or parcel of land necessary and expedient to pass over to and from their lands, mines, docks and wharves, and other property of the Company whatsoever:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise steamboats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, or any other kind of boats or vessels whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats or vessels deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company, and to use, maintain, or operate any or all of such boats and vessels for the conveying away of the coal and other products of the mines and mineral lands of the Company or otherwise:

(j.) To construct and lay down sewers, drains, and water-pipes in and upon and to and from the property and mines and mineral lands of the Company for the purpose of conveyance to and from any such lands for the better maintaining and developing of the works and business of the Company:

(k.) To prospect and search for mines and minerals, and particularly for veins and seams of coal, and doing improvement and development work in connection with prospective mines, and acquiring options upon and carrying out investigations of mineral lands, or purchase same, in all respects as fully and effectually as an individual can or may do:

(l.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any lands or shore rights for any water-power or other power, and to construct, procure, and maintain dams, machinery, buildings, and all appliances whatsoever for the development of such water or other power for the purpose of enabling the Company to carry out more effectually and economically the mining operations of the said Company:

(m.) To dispose of the products of the mines of the Company in any way or manner deemed best, and to sell their coal, either by contract, wholesale, or retail, and to maintain, control, and operate coalyards in any city or town in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as may appear beneficial to the interests of the Company:

(n.) To acquire by purchase, lease, pre-emption, or in exchange or otherwise land and any interests therein, and to hold the same, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, and to survey, lay out townsites, and subdivide the same or any part thereof, and to clear, manage, farm, cultivate, dyke, reclaim, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve the same, and sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same or any portion thereof or any interest therein when and as the Company may deem fit, and to deal in any products thereof:

(o.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of their business, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(p.) To develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular the laying-out of townsites and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings and works of every description, and by planting, paving, draining, dyking, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement or otherwise, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with purchasers, builders, tenants, and others:

(q.) To own, construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage townsites, waterworks, ga works, reservoirs, tramways, electric power, heat and light supply works, telephone works, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure grounds, parks, gardens, reading rooms, stores, and shops, and any industrial, educational, recreational, or other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to its welfare, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof, and to collect remuneration for the use of the same:

(r.) The acquisition of water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges for and the application of such water and water-powers to any of the purposes of the Company:

(s.) The use of water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and for constructing, operating, and maintaining electric works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity or electric power or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or by persons, municipalities, and companies contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power for the operation of motors, machinery, or electric-lighting or other works, or to be supplied by the Company to consumers for lighting, heating, or as a motive power for propelling tramways, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, and milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which electricity or electric power may be applied or required:

(t.) The use of water for water-power for hydraulic-mining purposes, for general irrigation purposes within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, other than the generation of electricity:

(u.) Placing, sinking, laying, fitting, maintaining, and repairing electric lines, accumulators, storage-batteries, electric cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections, branches, electric motors, dynamos, engines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, watercourses, pipes, poles, buildings, and other erections and works, and erecting and placing any electric line, cable, main, wire, or other electric apparatus above or below the ground:

(v.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in any manner that the Company shall think fit, and in particular by pledging or mortgaging any of the Company's mines, mineral lands, or other real or personal property or assets, and by the issuing of debentures, bonds, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, and to redeem and pay off from time to time all such security:

(w.) To draw, make, accept, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(x.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 2412.

THE FOLLOWING IS A TRUE COPY OF A MINUTE OF MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE PRIVY COUNCIL, APPROVED BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL ON THE 10TH DECEMBER, 1923.

THE COMMITTEE of the Privy Council have had before them a report, dated 30th November, 1923, from the Minister of the Interior, stating that Mr. W. J. Hanshu, of Lake Buntzen, has applied to lease a fifteen-acre parcel of land described as the southerly fifteen chains of the easterly ten chains of the South-west Quarter of Section Twenty-nine, Township Thirty-nine, west coast meridian, for the purpose of fish-culture.

The parcel has been inspected by an agent of the Department of the Interior, who reports favourably regarding the lease. The Assistant Deputy Minister, Department of Marine and Fisheries, reports that the departmental regulations do not prohibit or restrict any one from going into fish-culture for commercial or other desirable purposes, and that should it be found necessary to market fish of a lesser size than that contemplated by the regulations, no doubt suitable arrangements could be made to that end.

The applicant has secured the necessary water rights from the authorities of the Province of British Columbia.

The Minister therefore recommends that a lease be granted to the applicant for a term of five years at an annual rental of seven dollars and fifty cents, and that a clause be inserted in the lease that the parcel be used for no other purpose than the hatching and rearing of fish, and that the lease may be terminated upon six months' notice, and to be upon such other terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Department of Justice.

The Committee concur in the foregoing recommendation and submit the same for approval.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable

The Minister of the Interior.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

CRIMINAL APPEAL RULES, 1923.

MADE UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF "AN ACT TO AMEND THE CRIMINAL CODE," CHAPTER 11 OF 13-11, GEORGE V., 1923.

1. Appeals and applications for leave to appeal under the said amendment shall be brought or made within one month from the pronouncement of the conviction or sentence complained of.
2. Notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal shall specify the grounds thereof and the proposed place of hearing, and shall, if the appeal is proposed to be heard in Victoria, be sent to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal at Victoria; if in Vancouver, to the Registrar of the Court there. Three copies shall be forwarded to the Registrar with the notice.
3. The Registrar shall file the notice and send by registered mail or deliver to the Attorney-General of the Province one of said copies; he shall also send a copy in the same manner to the Judge or Magistrate appealed from.
4. If the application is for leave to appeal and the leave be granted, no other notice of appeal shall be necessary.
5. When the appeal is by the Attorney-General or the counsel for the Crown at the trial, against sentence, the practice and procedure in the Court of Appeal in criminal matters shall be followed.
6. Applications for extension of time shall be in the form set out in the Schedule hereto, and shall be accompanied by a notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal.
7. Applications to the trial Court for a certificate that the case is a fit one for appeal shall be made on three clear days' notice to the Attorney-General, unless he or the counsel who acted for the Crown at the trial shall waive the same.
8. The Court or a Judge may, notwithstanding that the time and place of hearing have been specified in the notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, fix any other time or place for the hearing thereof.
9. The Judge or Magistrate appealed from shall furnish to the Court of Appeal the report giving his opinion upon the case or any point arising in the case, and a copy of his notes of the trial, with all due expedition.
10. Where the evidence or part thereof has been taken in shorthand, the stenographer shall furnish, if requested, a certified transcript thereof to any of the parties interested upon payment of the fees hereinafter specified.
11. The appellant or applicant for leave to appeal shall be permitted to make copies of the said notes and report, but if he shall require copies of the same to be furnished to him, he shall pay for them in accordance with the last preceding rule.
12. On receipt of the notice of appeal or upon the granting of leave to appeal, the Registrar shall enter the appeal upon the list for the current or next sitting of the Court at the place fixed for the hearing thereof.
13. The written case or argument of the appellant shall be filed with the said Registrar three clear days before the day fixed for hearing; but the Court may receive the same at any time upon such terms as the Court shall think fit.
14. Any documents, exhibits, or other things connected with the proceedings on the trial shall be kept in the custody of the trial Court, subject to the order of the Court of Appeal or of a Judge thereof.
15. If the appellant desires to be tried by a jury, should a new trial be ordered, he shall give notice thereof in his notice of appeal or before the hearing of the appeal.
16. The forms to be supplied by the Registrar of the Court under this Act to those having the custody of accused persons and to others shall be those set out in the Schedule to these rules, and the instructions shall consist of copies of these rules to be supplied with the forms.
17. The fees payable for copies of documents, exhibits, evidence, or other things shall be those allowed under the tariff in civil cases.
18. In matters not herein provided for the Rules of Court in civil cases shall, mutatis mutandis, apply wherever possible.
19. These rules may be cited as "The Criminal Appeal Rules, 1923," and shall come into force on the first day of January, 1924.

Promulgated at Victoria, British Columbia, on the 31st day of December, A.D. 1923.
